Twins United In Old Guard After 3 Years

Separation for almost three years John Carlson returned to the 104th by train from New York leaving his twin brother, Edward, as uniformed" in all areas of the Fort. The first corner of both men was in Alaska and they met again for first training week before the 104th. It was there they met again in basic training and then together in the 104th. Since that time they have been together in every phase of training and the 104th.

In Alaska, the 104th spent a short time at Fort Richardson, then moved on to Adak Island for a brief period before being sent to Alaska, where they spent a year and a half. In Alaska, they were stationed in various locations, including Kodiak Island, Anchorage, and Nome. After their stay in Alaska, they returned to the United States and were stationed in various locations, including Fort Benning, Georgia, and Fort Bliss, Texas.

With the 104th, the twins were trained in various aspects of the military, including field training, weapons training, and leadership training. They were also trained in the use of various weapons, including rifles, machine guns, and mortars. During their time with the 104th, they were also involved in various operations, including the invasion of Okinawa and the occupation of Japan.

After their service with the 104th, the twins continued to serve in the military, with John Carlson serving with the 104th in the Korean War and Edward Carlson serving with the 104th in the Vietnam War. They retired from the military after completing their service with the 104th.

WRBL Plans 24-hour Coverage of Invasion

With the long-awaited invasion of the continental United States expected soon, preparations have been made to cover the invasion. WRBL, the station that covers historical events, is planning a special broadcast of the invasion. The broadcast will begin at 4:00 a.m. on the day of the invasion and will continue until 4:00 a.m. the following day.

The broadcast will feature interviews with military experts, military aid, and military historians. The broadcast will also feature music and sound effects to create a realistic atmosphere of the invasion. The broadcast will be broadcasted from the WRBL studios in Atlanta and will be heard throughout the United States.

In addition to the broadcast, WRBL will also have a special broadcast of the invasion on the day of the invasion. The broadcast will begin at 7:00 a.m. and will continue until 1:00 p.m. The broadcast will feature interviews with military experts, military aid, and military historians. The broadcast will also feature music and sound effects to create a realistic atmosphere of the invasion.

Have a Coca-Cola = Pukka Gen

(SWILL INFO.)

...or how friends are made in the R.A.F.

Have a "Cola" is a friendly greeting among R.A.F. flyers back at early dawn from a night mission. It's like a salute among comrades in arms that seals the bonds of friendship in Plymouth, England, as in Plymouth, Mass. It's an offer as welcome on an English airfield as it is in your own, living room. Around the globe, Coca-Cola is spreading the custom of this phrase to friends, -has become a happy symbol of good-hearted friendliness in many lands.

"I have seen only three Canadian cities... but what I have seen is to be as alarming as it is tragic... A nation enjoying the greatest prosperity in its history, has been built up on the backs of the working classes, has established on the steps of the European frontiers without the payment of a ghastly price... I say nothing more earnestly and sincerely than this... away with petty politics, away, with issues and candidates, and get on with the work that only the working class can do.

Youth in Service

The order for a young man's way and it's often been said in the past that football is a young man's sport. We've always thought of sport as a young man's sport, too, but this year's football season will be a departure from the usual in that it will be open to young boys. The youth in service is being encouraged to take part in football, and the young men are being encouraged to join the service of their country.

Future of the Game

On the eve of the season at the University of Illinois, a group of young men took part in a football game. The game was a departure from the usual in that it was open to young boys. The young men who took part were encouraged to join the service of their country.

3rd Infantry Plans Big-Time Grid Team

Ziogas, Ex-Collegiate Coach Named as Tutor

BY PVT. JOHN T. CROCKETT

The 3rd Infantry will play big-time football this fall, it was revealed over the weekend with the announcement by Lt. Col. H. B. Ackerman, the regiment’s Standing Officer, that Capt. Charles P. Ziogas has been appointed head coach of the "Red Coats."".

In an exclusive interview, Capt. Ziogas, who spent six years as a professional football coach with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Detroit Lions, said that his experience would be invaluable to the regiment’s football program, which has been struggling to gain recognition in the amateur ranks.

"I am very excited about this opportunity," Capt. Ziogas said. "I believe that our team has the potential to be one of the best in the country, and I am determined to prove it."".

Ziogas, who played at the University of Georgia and later went on to play for the Cleveland Browns, served as a line coach and held down the school coach, and played with a few professional teams. He is considered one of the most respected football coaches in the country, having won numerous awards and accolades during his career.

Ziogas will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the regiment, as he has worked with players from the most talented high school and college programs in the country. He is particularly known for his ability to develop players and turn them into superstars.

Ziogas and a staff of experienced assistants will take over the team in the spring, with training camp scheduled to begin in June.

The 3rd Infantry has been struggling to find success on the gridiron, but Ziogas believes that with hard work and dedication, the team can turn things around.

"I believe that we have the talent and the desire to become one of the best teams in the country," Capt. Ziogas said. "I am looking forward to the challenge and I am confident that we will succeed."".

Michigan State Grid Star Now In Class Here

Capt. Arthur Heen is not only an accomplished football player, but also a Student Manager at The Infantry School. Heen, who has been a part of the team since his freshman year, has worked his way up to the starting lineup and is now a valuable member of the team.

"I am proud to be a part of this team," Heen said. "I have learned so much from the coaches and my fellow players, and I am excited to see what the future holds for us."".

Heen, who attended Michigan State University before enlisting in the army, has been a part of the team since his freshman year. He has worked his way up to the starting lineup and is now a valuable member of the team.

"I am proud to be a part of this team," Heen said. "I have learned so much from the coaches and my fellow players, and I am excited to see what the future holds for us."".

Heen is looking forward to the season and is hoping to lead the team to success.

"I am excited to see what the future holds for us," Heen said. "I am looking forward to the season and I am confident that we will succeed."".

Heen's leadership and dedication have earned him the respect of his teammates and coaches, and he is expected to continue his success in the upcoming season.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Just as the Righteous Shepherd guarded
His Flock, so are the helpless and innocent guarded now by a power mightier than any on earth. We in turn, have faith
In that magnificent power to guide us in our flight against the forces of evil and fear, and to help us to possess in our hearts a better world.

One of the innovations in the 24th Company, 3rd Battalion, 15th Infantry, is the outdoor barbecue pit. The pit is made of steel and is protected by a wired fence wall and a half foot high. Two groups of men are sent into the pit every hour, and when they return produce the results shown in the picture. (Official U.S. Army Photo—The Southern)
